MOVING IN THE HANDSOME ALTAR, which will grace the new All Saints' Church at Dolores and Ninth Streets, marks the completion, almost to the day, of this impressive new landmark.

All Saints Dedicate Church

A twofold dedication service will be held there on Sunday morning at 11 A.M., led by the Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, bishop of California's Episcopal diocese.

Work on the nave, chancel and altar was completedthis week. The altar is made of a dark Brazilian wood called Janezero. Its lovely paneling, with figures done in yellow poplar, depicts two Old Testament saints, David and Isaiah, a central panel of the Crucifixion with the Virgin Mary and St. John, and another of St. Paul and St. Peter. Decorative carving of wheat and wine, alluding to the bread and wine of the Sacrament, carries through the Biblical motif. The carvings were designed and executed by Alec Miller, of Monterey. The altar itself was made by Ivor Prosser (extreme right in photograph).

Immediately following the dedication rite, which includes blessing of the memorial windows, the lectern, pulpit and altar, Bishop Block will confirm a class of 20 new new communicants of the parish.

A personal interest in the new All Saints' Church is shown by Bishop Block's continuous assistance to parishioners in building their house of worship. The bishop is a resident of Carmel, and member of the local parish.

Other clergy assisting in the service will be the Rt. Rev. Winfred H. Ziegler, retired bishop of Wyoming, the Rev. Canon Charles A. Dowdell, the Rev. J. Armistead Welbourn, who is visiting Carmel from Leesburg, Virginia, and the Rev. Alfred B. Seccombe, rector of All Saints'.

NEW MANAGEMENT

The Yarn Tree in the Golden Bough Court has been recently redecorated and is under new management. Mrs. James Bjedsoe, the owner, wishes to let Mrs. Mouser's many friends know that she is remaining in Carmel.

CARMEL WOMAN'S CLUB ENJOYS SOUND AND COLOR FILM

Mrs. H. Douglas Martz of Rancho Agua-Jito was responsible for the program of the Garden Section of the Carmel Woman's Club Monday, January 29, which featured a sound and color film of Bellingrath Gardens.

A potted grandiflora camellia, grown and donated by Mrs. Martz, was won by Miss Amy Comings, who bought the lucky number from Mrs. E. Bingaman.

The garden program, in charge of Mrs. H. Douglas Martz, consisted of sound and color pictures of the Bellingrath Gardens, "the charm spot of the deep South," 20 miles south of Mobile, Alabama, on the Isle-Aux Oies River. These gardens were created because of the love of beauty of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Bellingrath, who collected specimen plants from old gardens all over the South. The gardens are open the year around to visitors. Over 2,000 camellias and 250,000 azaleas are in bloom from February to April. Many of the bushes are more than 100 years old and 15 to 20 feet in height.

Numerous varieties were shown in colors on the screen. Views of the walks, bridges and lakes in the 60-acre garden were shown with the many-colored flowers and moss-draped oaks, magnolias, cypress, cedars and pines.

Added to the commentator's descriptions were Mrs. Martz' personal account of her visit to the Bellingrath Gardens. From a $25 copy of a book on camellias, Mrs. Martz showed colored plates of these exquisite flowers. "Azaleas, Their Growth and Culture," by the same author, was shown--this book available in local libraries.

In conclusion, Mrs. Martz requested Mrs. L. C. Miller, hostess for the day, to draw numbers for the table decorations. The holders of these lucky numbers were Mrs. Ross Hoffman, Mrs. John Sherwood, Mrs. D. M. Ashton and Mrs. Margaret Saunders, each of whom won a large camellia blossom donated by Mrs. Martz. Appreciation was expressed to the Musical Arts Association for the stage decorations and to Mrs. F. E. Naftzger for baking the mince meat tarts. These tarts were served with tea by Hostess Mrs. L. C. Miller, assisted by Mrs. F. E. Naftzger, Miss Mabel Claire Stark, Mrs. Eva R. Belangee, Mrs. Ronald K. McGregor and Mrs. C. U. Fonteneau. Pouring were Mrs. William N. Eklund and Mrs. Helen Cranston. An unusuall y large audience thanked Mrs. Martz for providing this interesting program.

The next meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club will be a general meeting featuring Ulrika, designer, fashion authority and psychologist, who will speak on "Basic Wardrobes" on Monday, February 5, at 2 P.M.

After hearing this lecture, you may be able to look at your friends and know whether they are the frustrated, insecure type, the placid, selfish, scheming type, or have that adequate poise and background that do not require the bolstering of furs and diamonds. Designing for the individual will be discussed and "Basic Wardrobes" will be illustrated with Ulrika's own water

With Easter coming in March this year, it is time to be planning new wardrobes--to say nothing of learning how personality, and even character, are expressed in the clothes we wear. A large attendance is expected at this meeting. Although Carmel boasts of its village atmosphere, clothes ARE worn here!

PUBLIC ENEMY, NO. 1

Join the March of Dimes!

YOU'RE STILL UNDER THE GUN. Although the National March of Dimes campaign ends officially this week, it's not too late to contribute. March of Dimes collection cans will remain in public places all next week. Contributions may also be mailed in to local polio foundation chapters. It's still Dime-time!

CARMEL POLIO PATIENTS RECEIVED $1129.50 NATIONAL FUNDS IN '50

March of Dimes funds allocated to Carmel in 1950 by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis exceeded by $895.74 the amount collected locally in last year's campaign, according to Carl Patnude, Carmel chapter chairman.

Patnude explained that of $527.52 received through local contributions, the National Foundation and the Monterey Chapter each received $263.76. However, funds totalling $1,129.50 were spent in Carmel alone on treatment of local polio cases.

LAST CALL FOR ADULTS DESIRING SHORTHAND TRAINING

At the Monterey Peninsula College Evening School, the beginning, intermediate and advanced shorthand classes began on January 22. Groups meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 P.M.

Already 21 beginners, 10 intermediate and six advanced students have enrolled, a total of 37 adults. Not many more can be accommodated. It seems that every woman who does not expect to work in a war factory is preparing for a defense office job.

While the beginners are getting special help from the teacher, the more advanced students are taking dictation from a tape recorder at speeds increasing from 80 to 160 words per minute. This is a new but tested program which saves the time of the student and the instructor. After work from the tape, the adult can then receive drills and special instruction directly from the instructor. Advanced dictation and transcription are also included.

All adults interested are invited to attend. For further information telephone Monterey 2-5861 during the afternoon and evening. All students must enroll for the spring term at the office of the Monterey Peninsula College.

CARMEL POLICE CHIEF SPEAKS TO KIWANIS

The Carmel-by-the-Sea Kiwanis Club had for its guest speaker at luncheon Thursday, at Cypress West, Carmel's Chief of Police Clyde Klaumann for a practical discussion of juvenile delinquency. Introduced by Commander John Chitwood, the chief stated that the responsibility of all police forces is the protection of citizens and their property and the enforcement of the law. Where these duties are interfered with by juveniles, the police must act. But direct action and planning are too often interfered with by various agencies which theorize about juvenile delinquency and succeed merely in making it more difficult for local authority to control.

One grave problem is the parent's use of the police as bogeymen to frighten young children into good behavior. This attitude is frequently supplanted by later observation of the parent's disregard for the law. Thus a poor relationship is established between the child and the police which is never remedied.

The three most important influences upon juveniles are the home, the school and the church. Without the cooperation of all three, the police face grave difficulties in exercising control. The homes of juvenile delinquents are usually too indulgent. Too many parents believe that their responsibilities cease with housing, feeding and clothing their children. Bringing them up to be good citizens they believe to be the function of the community. But when the police must enforce the law in juvenile cases, the fathers and mothers are indignant that the police should invade the sanctity of the American home and should interfere with a non-existent parental authority. The best way to prevent delinquency in your own family is to exert home influence. Establish your own authority and show that by cooperation with the police, both parents and children will be afforded the police help and protection they are paying for.

The schools can be and frequently are an excellent influence. Where crowded school conditions exist and teachers are underpaid and overworked, little cooperation between school and police authorities can be expected. Wherever a proper understanding is reached between schools and police, they readily help each other solve many of their problems.

The most potent help is given by the church. But the problem there is to get the child and the parent into the church. Once there, the church aids parents, children, school and local authority immeasurably.

Judge Ray Baugh, visitor from the Monterey Kiwanis Club, accented the chief's emphasis upon the importance to the juvenile of his own home.

The Reverend Alfred Seccombe spoke briefly upon the great spirit of friendliness and cooperation between Canada and the United States and the function of Kiwanis in furthering our mutual interests.

Yesterday, Carmel Kiwanians were luncheon guests of Commander Ed Konrad at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station.

Long-term Investment that pays daily dividends

THESE days thoughtful people turn their minds to the durability of things they purchase.

But it's rare when doing your duty turns out to be the best way to satisfy your heart's desire.

That's what's so marvelous about this '51 Buick.

If you picked a car just for the lift it gives you—your pride in its power—or its generous comfort—you couldn't make a better choice.

But make note of this:

That gleaming new push-bar forefront, which greets your eye with flashing beauty, contains 25 grille bars made of stamped steel, individually mounted to "give" and come back unharmed. Combined with a massive, wrap-around bumper, fortressed by two stalwart "bumper bombs" and two added uprights, it gives unsurpassed protection.

Springs of stout spiraled steel on all four wheels let your wheels curtsey over bumps, while you ride level as a lance. But they also need no servicing, and breakage is virtually unknown.

Buick's great-powered engine is a Fireball, wondrously lively and eager at the mere touch of your toe—but it also wrings extra power from every drop of fuel, and has the mechanical perfection that comes only from years of experience with this basic design.

Dynaflow Drive gives you effortless smoothness of control—but it also eliminates clutch repair bills, saves tires, eases strain on the whole driving mechanism, from engine to differential.

The road-steady gait of a Buick assures relaxed security—and is also evidence that you have a durable, deep-silled, X-braced frame beneath you.

However you check it, you'll discover this: The things that make you yearn for a Buick on first acquaintance, are the very same things that make Buick such a smart long-time buy.

Better see your Buick dealer—soon.

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

WELCOME COTTAGE NEEDS DONATIONS

The Carmel Welcome Cottage for hospitality to service men will be open officially on February 10 and 11. However, the Cottage, through its house committee chairman, Mrs. Barbara Murphy, will be glad to welcome on Sunday, February 4, after 12 o'clock noon, any service men who care to drop in informally, though the Cottage is as yet only partially furnished.

Welcome Cottage for Service Men urgently needs comfortable chairs. Mrs. Murphy hopes that all who can give or loan such chairs will telephone her at Carmel 7-3846 after 7 P.M. any evening.

Funds are urgently needed to renovate the Cottage and to provice supplies for the comfort of the service men. Money contributions should be sent to Mr. Spencer Waters, treasurer, P.O. Box 2952, Carmel.

YOU ARE INVITED TO A RED CROSS TEA

The Volunteer Services of the Carmel Red Cross are entertaining at a tea to be given at the Carmel Woman's Club, Tuesday, February 6, at 2:30 P.M., according to Mrs. Frank Moller, the new chairman of Volunteer Services. The tea has a twofold purpose--to honor those who served faithfully in the two-year period ending July 1, 1950, and to interest others in the volunteer service program. Everyone is invited. Volunteers active with the chapter are asked to appear in uniform. A class of 30 completing the recent Staff Aide course will be given their pins and capped.

Principal speakers on the program are Mrs. James G. Sharp, Jr., of Palo Alto, National Volunteer Service representative, and Miss Mildred Samuelson, executive assistant director of Volunteer Services of the Pacific Area.

Acting as hostesses with Mrs. Moller are Mrs. James Glaser, chairman of transportation; Mrs. Rush R. Wallace, chairman of entertainment and instruction service; Mrs. Kent Parrot, Nurses Aide chairman; Mrs. Howard Smith, co-chairman of production; Mrs. Isabelle Terhune, Gray Lady chairman, and Mrs. Fred Hollenbeck and Mrs. Nat Freeman, co-chairmen of staff aides.

SAN FRANCISCO VISITORS VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Osborne, of Pebble Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Beverly Nickel, of Los Banos, are spending the weekend in San Francisco.

CAMERA TRAILS CLUB MEETS

A meeting of Camera Trails Club is scheduled for Saturday evening, Sunset School, Room 11, at 7:30 P.M. There will be a contest that evening with the subject being "Hands." Judging will be by Mr. Howard Smith.

In addition, pictures will be selected for P.S.A. salon exhibition, according to the group's publicity chairman, Lorena Dalsing.

WRITING CLASS MEETS TUESDAYS

The Magazine Article Writing Class at Monterey Peninsula College will meet hereafter only on Tuesday evenings, according to Calvin C. Cope, dean of the Evening College. The class will begin at 7 P.M., rather than at 7:30, and will run until 10 o'clock.

Registration is free and will remain open until further notice, Mr. Cope stated. The class, whose purpose is to teach students to write and well magazine articles, is open both to experienced writers and rank beginners. The course is being conducted by Mel Huden, chairman of the journalism department.

TWO ARMY NURSES DON UNIFORMS of the past--50 years ago and present--in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Army Nurse Corps, whose founding was celebrated yesterday at Fort Ord by an open house.

Actual anniversary date of the ANC is February 2, but the reception was scheduled for Thursday night so that Lt. Col. Ruby F. Bryant, Director of Nurses in the 6th Army area, might attend.

The affair was held in the reception room of the hospital's main dispensary. Major Mary Steppan, Chief Nurse at Fort Ord, said civilian nurses from Monterey, Salinas, Carmel, Pacific Grove and other nearby communities were invited to the anniversary celebration.

CARMEL CRAFTS GUILD ELECTS NEW DIRECTORS

A general meeting of the Carmel Crafts Guild was held January 24 at the Carmel Art Association Galleries, with thirty persons present. A review was made of the past year's activities, during which time the principal accomplishment was completion of the new Crafts building at the Monterey County Fair Grounds, the entire construction being done by members and volunteers. The 30 x 50 foot build- is constructed of Monterey pine logs, with a brick porch, shake roof, Dutch doors, a cupola, and, as a gift from the president, Francis Whitaker, a wrought iron weather vane.

Mr. Whitaker expressed his appreciation of the arts and crafts drawing last year at which, in cooperation with the Carmel Art Association, the pictures and craft work donated raised over $3,000 for the Point Lobos League for acquisition of the Carmel beach property. It was announced that the lecture series on crafts, begun last year, is going to be continued this year. The Craft Guild is now affiliated with the American Craftsmen Education Council, a national organization for stimulating interest in crafts, and the publisher of "Craft Horizons."

New members elected to serve a two-year term on the board of directors are Doris Ormsby of Carmel and Salinas, artist and block printer; Mrs. Lina Eckert, Carmel weaver; Mrs. Marian Brueck, Carmel silk screen printer; Ernest Calley, Carmel potter, instructor in crafts at Sunset School, and, as alternate, Mrs. Clara Martinie, Carmel potter and weaver.

Board members still continuing in office are Francis Whitaker, Joseph Frame, Howell Armor, E. M. Beecher and Sarah Kistler. As president for the coming year, the board elected Joseph Frame, Carmel woodcarver and silk screen painter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCarger were present at the meeting. Mr. McCarger, manager of the Monterey County Fair, expressed appreciation to the many Peninsula craftsmen for their construction of the Crafts building and for their fine exhibit of crafts work and crafts in action at the Fair. He offered his cooperation in making the Fair grounds and buildings available for crafts exhibits and meetings during the entire year, stating that he felt the Fair could thus serve the community on a larger scale than if reserved only for the brief fair period annually.

A SERVICE FOR DISCRIMINATING BUYERS

THE CARMEL WORK CENTER, whose theme, "Encourage Peninsula Craftsmen," welcomes the opportunity to do any special order work you may desire. They have ready, willing and eager craftsmen who love to do this sort of thing. If you need a lamp made--or even want to have some of your pottery dishes matched, just bring your problem to THE CARMEL WORK CENTER SHOPS ... and while you're there, don't forget to get acquainted with Versatile and Baby Eddie. You'll love them!

VERSATILE EDDIE--the amazingly successful item now being carried in THE CARMEL WORK CENTER SHOP in the Seven Arts Building in Carmel, and at the Pebble Beach Shop--is the brain child of Larry Lushbaugh. Versatile of Larry Lushbaugh. Versatile Eddie has a smaller reflection of himself, Baby Eddie. The purposes of these Eddies are many. They keep the stove clean by holding the stirring spoon. They can be used as an indoor ashtray and as an outdoor wind-proof ashtray. When Versatile Eddie is paired with Baby, they make a clever table decoration. Can also be used as wall ornament, wall planter or vase. Versatile Eddie sells for $1.50 and Baby Eddie for 70 cents.

IT'S A STROOK--America's most distinguished manufacturer of coats, Strook, has done it again. The Strook shorties, now shown exclusively at the COLLEGIATE SHOP in Monterey, are out of this world in design, detail and color. These Strook shorties are in the new spring colors--iris, salmonette, gold and shell pink. They are beautifully lined, and have wonderfully attractive buttons with a little cluster of gold grapes in the center. They are light, fluffy and warm and I don't need to tell you that they are an all 'round coat and non-seasonal. These are priced at only $59.98.

In addition to Strook Mrs. Brownlee of the COLLEGIATE SHOP has imported a white shortie from England. It has unusually long, low, deep patch pockets... and is only $49.98. A cashmere wool cinnamon jacket with four flap pockets, that can be worn belted or loose, is fantastically priced at $39.98. But that is not all. Mrs. Brownlee also has a selection of truly popular priced shorties. Of hop sacking and 100% wool, they are made by a good house--are nicely lined and have an attractive American Eagle gold design on the breast pocket. These shorties are available in gold and red for only $16.95. So, now, if it's a shortie you need, you know where you can find a wide selection, including Strook, at prices that show that the COLLEGIATE SHOP, at 489 Alvarado, Monterey, does not go wild on its mark-up.

THE ASTONISHING FACT THAT A HAND KNIT DRESS NEED WEIGH ONLY EIGHT OUNCES when finished is the really good news I received from Mrs. James Bledsoe of THE YARN TREE. Mrs. Bledsoe, who has redecorated the shop, spoke enthusiastically about some of her plans for the future. She spoke of the need for a yarn that could be used for ballerina skirts without being too heavy. In the near future she expects to have in her stock such a yarn, just recently on the market, that in a full-skirted dress will weigh only eight ounces and thus eliminate all bulkiness. Inasmuch as the gage is 7½ to 8 stitches per inch on number two and number three needles, it will not take any longer to knit a dress out of this yarn, for the gage is the same as on an ordinary dress. During these times of wool shortages, the added fact that this yarn will cost considerably less is of importance. Mrs. Bledsoe of THE YARN TREE, in the Golden Bough Court in Carmel, is vitally interested in encouraging 'teen age knitting. So--you young girls who haven't had the opportunity of being given interested instruction in knitting--here is your real chance.

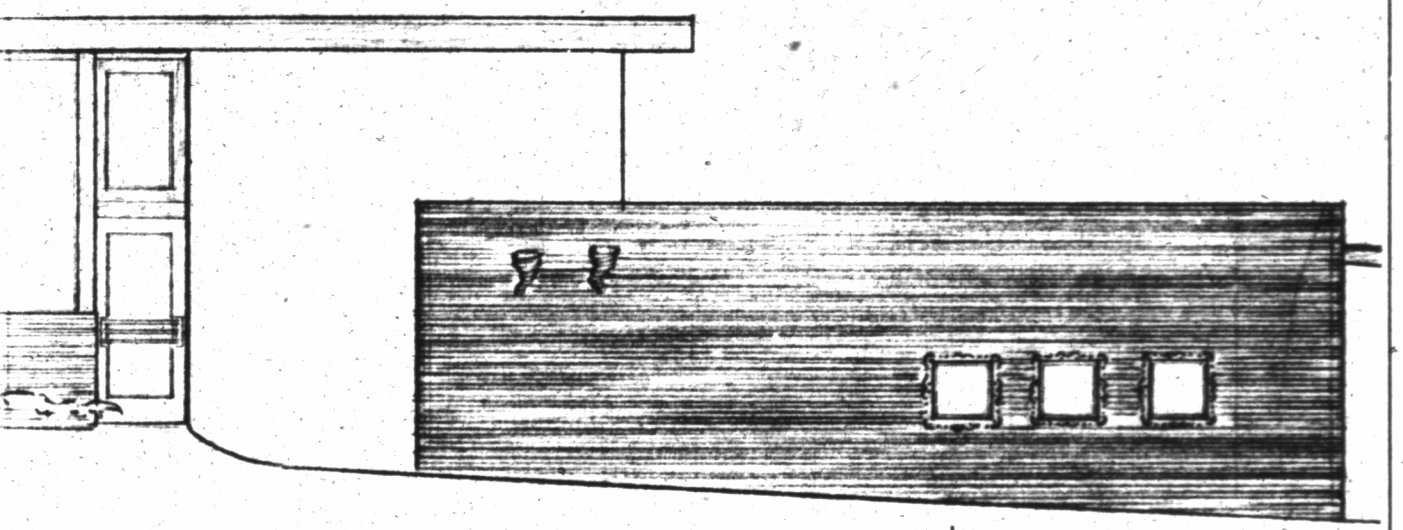
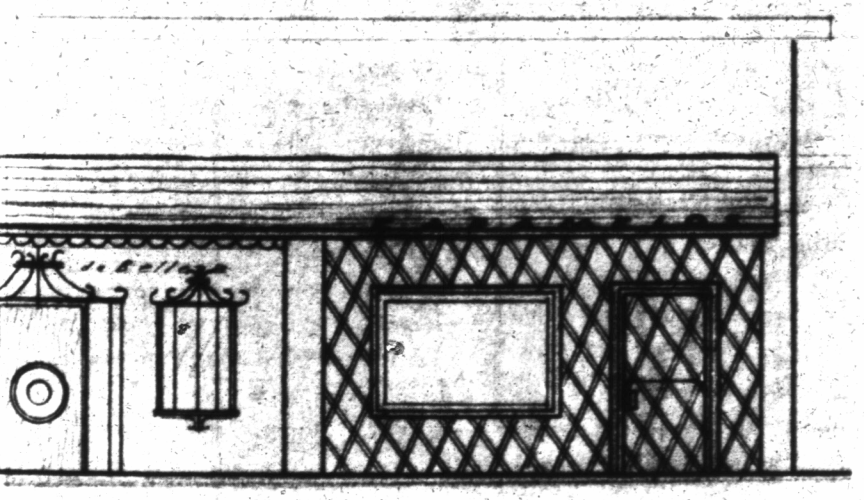
Owner of the present post office site, Robert Leidig, will turn the old building over to other business when the new post office is installed. The present lease expires in March, but Leidig said he would extend the government's lease until the new structure was completed, probably by August.

The government will take a ten-year lease on the new site when final negotiations are completed.





ARCHITECT'S DRAWINGS of the shops (left) designed to line the Dolores Street side of the new post office building, illustrate the care taken to combine the unobtrusive naturalness preferred by Carmel, with the functional beauty of modern architectural design.

At present four shops with 20 foot frontages are planned, although space arrangements may be modified to the desires of the lessees. The blank wall (above) facing north on 5th St., along with the post office entrance, will probably be changed to include an ample show window.

What Do You Say ?

"TO THE SITE OF THE NEW CARMEL POST OFFICE"

EARL MATTHIESSEN, Carmel real estate salesman: "I'd judge the move to the new location as a good one. The post office's present location is an unfavorable one from a traffic control standpoint. Carmel's central business district is becoming increasingly congested, the streets are relatively narrow, and therefore poor place for a post office with all the parking problems it invites. Locating it farther from the center of congestion I think is wise."

MRS. JOSEPH L. WELLS, music store owner. "I think it's working a hardship on the business people who have to walk an extra block carrying heavy packages--inasmuch as there is no delivery service. I don't think it's time to be building new buildings under present curtailments while other space is available. The government should set an example in this respect, instead of expecting privileges."

COLDEN O. WHITMAN, commercial artist: "I think the change is a pretty good idea. After all, things are getting rather congested in the business district proper. I think any move away from Ocean Avenue will help solve traffic problems. I don't see how the move will prove detrimental to local business people."

ANDY DEL MONTE, Carmel traffic officer: "I think it's a perfect idea, provided certain conditions are observed. I've proposed the following contemplated changes in a letter I've submitted to the Carmel City Council and the Planning Commission for approval. They are: (1) Leave Dolores a one-way street. Institute parallel parking on both sides of Dolores. This is a system they follow all over the country. Make the parking limit on Dolores one hour. (2) Limit the parking time in front of the new post office (between San Carlos and Dolores on 5th Street) to 15 minutes. (3) Place stop signs on East and West sides of Dolores."

Editor's Note: We think you will like this new SPECTATOR feature. If you do, send in questions you would like asked. The SPECTATOR will pay $1 for each question used. Address: "WHAT DO YOU SAY," BOX AO, CARMEL.

FASHION SHOW AND CARD PARTY FOR YOUTH CENTER

For the benefit of the Carmel Youth Center, the Carmel Woman's Club will be the setting for a Dessert Card Party and Fashion Show in the clubhouse, 9th and San Carlos, on Friday, February 2, at 1 P.M.

The admission price will be $1, including tax. Many tables of four have already been reserved, but single admissions are welcome. Those who do not play cards may enjoy the luncheon dessert and coffee while watching the fashion show.

Local models will display Bee Mouser's "originals." Mrs. Lynn Conlan, of Lynn's Limited, will exhibit Evans' suits, Chinese lounging pajamas of pure silk damask and Hawaiian prints designed by Mrs. Conlan.

Graham's Music Store is donating the music, which is in charge of Mrs. Graham. A pleasant afternoon is in store for the large crowd expected. Home-made dessert, coffee, music, cards--and a glimpse at the latest in clothes styles and designs will make the program worth while. And --your dollars will swell the fund of the Carmel Youth Center. Don't miss this first fashion show of the season. Your friends will all be there. Remember the date--FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, at 1 P.M. N.L.

BUSY MONTH FOR AWVS

The next meeting of the American Women's Volunteer Services will be held Friday, February 2, at 2 P.M., at the YMCA Service Center in Monterey, at which time new officers will be installed.

Another of the series of musical evenings was held on Sunday, January 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shuster in Carmel. The program was presented by Mr. Mackay Swann, lyric baritone; Elliott Fisher, concert violinist, accompanied by Sgt. Cadorett of the Presidio Army Language School, formerly instructor at the Rhode Island Conservatory of Music; Frank Bolling, pianist, and Carl Cocomo, who accompanied himself on the accordion.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Philip Schneeberger, chairman of the project, and Miss Alice Seckels, vice-chairman; Mrs. Fritz Wurtzman, Mrs. Carl Nuetzel, Mrs. Walter Lehman, Mrs. James Tyson, Mrs. Harvey Wolfe, Miss Angie Machado, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Edgar Bissantz, Mrs. Victor Velissaratos, Mrs. Verna Saffassio, Mrs. William Love. Honor guests of the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Filmore Gray.

Through Mrs. Schneeberger's committee small groups of service men have been invited to spend Sunday evenings during January in various Peninsula homes.

The Motor Transport committee arranged another tour last Sunday of the 17-Mile Drive and a visit to the Mission for men from Fort Ord. Members and their husbands who drove were Mrs. Cyrus Johnson, chairman, and Mr. Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Kent Pittman; Mrs. Jessie Crain and Mrs. Edward P. McMurtry.

ROCKETS ON PENINSULA

The Rockets have arrived on the Peninsula. That's not an ominous statement in this case but a pleasant one. It announces the first of the 1951 Oldsmobiles--"The Rocket 98"--now on display at the Merrill Motor Company, Oldsmobile distributors for the Monterey Peninsula. Ivan Merrill says, "The Rocket 98" is the most exciting Oldsmobile--the most magnificent Oldsmobile--ever built, and I'm extending an invitation to everyone to come in and inspect these cars on my showroom floor."

Features of the new cars are more spacious and luxurious interiors, new chassis and suspension system and a new smoother Hydra-Matic with gas-saving advantages. The Merrill Motor showrooms are at 425 Washington in Monterey.

CARMEL BASKETBALLERS MEET SANTA BARBARA TOMORROW NIGHT. Carmel Youth Center basket ball squad and Frost Roofers combine forces to meet the All Americans from Santa Barbara Saturday night, February 3, at the Carmel High School.

Preliminary goes will be a Carmel lightweights of Carmel High vs. the Live Oak squad of Morgan Hill High, at 7 P.M. The Padres, Carmel High School varsity, will play the Live Oak varsity at 8 P.M. The Live Oaks are the only high school team to take Salinas High this season. The Padres lost by 2 points to the Oaks in their last game.

The big game will start at about 9 P.M. Members of the Carmel All-stars are (reading from right to left, back row): Max Hodges, Jim Hare, Walt Frey, Dick Weer, Steve Whitaker. (Kneeling, right to left): Ky Miyamoto (Coach), Gordy Miyamoto, Gene Vandervort, Lee Laugenour and Jack Giles, director. Those not in picture, all members of the Frost Roofers unbeaten team, are Bob Clark, Bill Joost, Nick Albert and Bill Whistler.

All proceeds of the game will be donated to the Carmel Youth Center. Fred Godwin is providing lodging for the All American squad.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

Our "Who Is It?" this week is the Hon. Charles L. de Vault, whose new work here as coordinator of the intricacies of the traffic department will be a great boon both to the citizenry and the police department. Heretofore fines for traffic violations have been paid to Judge Ross, but Mr. de Vault's work will relieve both the police department and Judge Ross of the vast amount of clerical work connected with traffic enforcement.

Although Mr. de Vault came here five years ago to enjoy retirement from an exciting and interesting life, 24 years of which were spent abroad, he is far too energetic "to quit."

"I suppose it's because I like people that I've come in contact with so many all over the world and had so much to do with their problems both personal and national." Ever since his graduation from the University of Michigan, where he majored in law, he has participated in legal affairs. For 11 years of his 20 in the practice of law, Mr. de Vault was associated with Thomas R. Marshall, vice-president of the United States during the Wilson administration. In 1917 he went abroad as American consul, serving three years in Paris, five years in London, 10 years in Tokyo and Yokahama, three years again in Paris, and three in the City of Mexico. During these years he was ace "trouble-shooter" for five presidents of the United States in Latin America, Europe and Japan.

Following his retirement, Mr. de Vault was war news analyst for KDKA in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Since the war he has delivered more than 500 lectures relating to international affairs, and the part which the United States has played in these affairs.

Typifying his cosmopolitan life is his hobby of collecting objects of art from all parts of the world, chief among which is a beautiful bronze bust of his wife made in Tokyo at the direction of one-time Emperor Hirohito.

In 1945 Mr. de Vault and his wife bought the old Winslow home at Eighth and Casanova in Carmel, but instead of "retiring," he has been active in town affairs ever since. And now, best of all for Carmel traffic violators, they will find in the new city hall an understanding and interested person who, although he must relieve them of their "fines" will be none the less friendly while doing so

CARMEL PLAYHOUSE GIVEN FEDERAL GO - AHEAD

All Carmel is happy to learn that the new Playhouse, for which plans were approved last year by the Planning C ommission, has been granted the government's permission to proceed with its building plans. A special order of exemption from prohibitions of the National Production Authority directive against continued construction of theatres was received this week by Edward Kuster, president of the Carmel Playhouse Corporation.

The exception granted by the NPA, United States Department of Commerce, in the case of the Playhouse, is based on a clause in the directive authorizing such an exception where prohibition of a project would result in "undue and unreasonable hardship" or would "not be in the interest of National Defense." The petition for relief forwarded to Washington in December laid stress on the following factors: that the buming of the Golden Bough had temporarily put an end to a cultural activity of more than 40 years' standing; that much time and money had been expended on the restoration project before the government's prohibition order was enacted; that comparatively little defense material in short supply would be used in construction; that the Playhouse had become a vital community and business asset to this residential and resort town; also that a resumption of the out-of-the-ordinary entertainment policy of the Bolden Bough would furnish an unusual recreational outlet for the armed forces stationed in this region.

For the information of those interested, there still remains a limited amount of preferred stock in the Carmel Playhouse corporation, sale of which will now be pushed, especially among business organizations. Building plans are being speeded up and a call for bids from contractors will soon be made. Under the new title of the Carmel Players, the former "Golden Bough Players" will shortly start preparations for play productions, for a time to be held in the Sun set Auditorium--later in the new Playhouse.

Directors of the Carmel Playhouse corporation, elected in December, are Edward Kuster, Fritz Wurzman, Barbara Norberg, Gabrielle Kuster and J. T. Harrington, Salinas attorney. Inquiries regarding the Playhouse or the Players should be addressed to Barbara Norberg, secretary, P.O. Box 1147.

UNUSUAL FILM COMING TO HILL THEATRE

Coming to the Hill Theater Sunday, to play through Wednesday is the widely acclaimed fantastic film, "Dreams That Money Can Buy," produced by Hans Richter in a Manhattan loft. The film is in color and the dialogue in English.

Collaborating with Richter in the seven dream sequences are a number of the most famous artists of the day, and most successful is the Fernand Leger - John Latouche episode entitled "The Girl with the Pre-fab Heart," which Newsweek hailed as "delightful satire."

Other episodes are Max Ernst's "Desire," the voluptuous revery of a girl; Man Ray's "Ruth, Roses, Revolvers," with music by Darius Milhaud; Marcel Duchamp's play on his own "Nude Descending the Staircase;" Alexander Calder's "Ballet on the Universe" and (with music by Paul Bowles) "Circus," and Richter's own "Narcissus." The episodes are related through the soul-searching of an ex-GI named, not surprisingly, Joe.

Playing with "Dreams" will be the W. C. Fields farce, "Never Give a Sucker an Even Break." The Hill management plans to break "Dreams" at the third sequence for a brief explanatory account of the film.

MUSICAL ART CLUB CONCERT

The Musical Art Club presented Miss Carole Larsen, soprano, and Mr. Tom Baker, pianist, Sunday afternoon, January 28, at the Carmel Woman's Club.

The program opened with a group of songs by Miss Larsen, a beautiful girl of n ineteen. Miss Larsen has real charm, graceful stage presence and composure unusual in a girl of this age. She was at her best in the Aria "O Mio Bambino Caro" by Puccini, where her volume and fire were amazing. Time will mature any qualities lacking today.

Mr. Tom Baker from Salinas took the audience by storm. Only 15 years old, his capabilities are unusual. The Ravel "Jeaux d'Eau" was played with a sparkle and flowing color; and the Scholtakovich "The Three Fantastic Dances" really brought down the house. He was called back many times by a most appreciative audience. A pupil of Miss Dorothy Heer of Salinas, Mr. Baker gives promise of a brilliant future.

OPERA, TV STAR GIVES CONCERT

Star of opera, radio and television Virginia MacWatters will be presented by the Monterey Peninsula Community Concert Association on Friday, February 9, at the Pacific Grove High School Auditorium, at 8:15 P.M.

Miss MacWatters, a coloratura soprano and award winner of the Metropolitan Opera A uditions of the Air, has a peculiarly gifted voice, reaching G above high C with ease. Her Metropolitan audition won her a contract in the role of Adele with the New Opera Company in its highly successful production of "Rosalinda," which ran on Broadway 540 performances. Her first important operatic debut was a season with the San Francisco Opera Company, during which she sang five leading roles.

Her appearance here will be the fourth in a five-concert series for the 1950-51 season. Admission will be by membership card only. No single admissions will be sold. The auditorium doors open at 7:30 P.M.

FOREST THEATRE GUILD TRY-OUTS TUESDAY EVENING

On Tuesday evening, February 6, at 8 P.M.., the Forest Theatre Guild, under the direction of Cole Weston, will have try-outs, at the Sunset Cafeteria, Carmel, for their next play, "Light Up the Sky," by Moss Hart.

There are 13 roles--a wide variety to be cast in this intriguing and intimate play of theatre people and their associates. The setting is the lush background of Boston's Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

All interested in these try-outs are welcome to participate.

PENINSULA PETS GIFT SHOP

Attention sportsmen! The Peninsula Pets Little Gift Shop is offering for sale some beautiful illustrations of game birds and water fowl of this country, sketched and colored by the famous artist sportsman A. Pope, Jr. Mr. Pope's sketches were lithographed by Scribner, Armstrong & Co., New York, in 1878, and are splendidly preserved.

This little gift shop--just across from the Church of the Wayfarer in Carmel--has many interesting things for sale--fine glassware and china, Katherine Allen pottery, Mexican glasses and pottery, fine linens, Jo Mora maps, a painting by Catherine Seideneck and other articles too numerous to list. All the proceeds of the sale of these contributions go to further the work of Peninsula Pets, Inc. Miss Bess Prewett and her staff are all volunteers; there are no paid workers.

MASTER JEFFRY ARNOLD, age two, knows that a man's best friend is a dog. However, Jeffry is wise enough to know that these things have to be reciprocal. Wednesday morning he was caught stopping hurrying crowds to the post office as he sat protectively guarding his dog Spotty. Spotty, you can see by the picture, is under the weather and--well, if I was sick--! Jeffry is the son of Mrs. Janet Buchanan Arnold, of Carmel. POLAROID One-Minute Photograph.

DON'T BET ON THE WEATHER!

It's very foolish to bet on the weather, because no one can do anything about it. Many of us believed a day or two ago that spring was only around the corner.

YOU CAN SAFELY BET ON OUR GROCERIES

At least you can bet they are groceries and you know, without betting, that we go in for top quality at this store. After all, you can't beat quality. Try our complete line of groceries and see our wide selection of fresh vegetables.
